I am in support in the keeping the Morse Code Requirement.
It is in the Public Interest that we maintain Morse Code in at least a minimum level as a backup means or communication when all else may fail.
This should be a basic commmunication requirement.